Overview

Kevin practises in the fields of public international law, international arbitration, and commercial litigation. He is qualified in England and Wales and in Singapore, and has active rights of audience at all levels of the courts in both jurisdictions.

Kevin has significant experience acting in proceedings before international courts and tribunals, and in an international and politically sensitive context. He has been involved as counsel in matters before the International Court of Justice, International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, UNCLOS Annex VII tribunals, investor-State tribunals, and in inter-State mediation. He has also been appointed as legal adviser or expert by the Council of Europe, ASEAN, SAARC, the Commonwealth Secretariat, and the Energy Community Secretariat on arbitration, energy, natural resources, oceans, trade and international dispute settlement.

In arbitration, Kevin has been instructed as counsel across the full spectrum of inter-State, investor-State and commercial arbitrations. He has been instructed on a significant number of arbitration matters involving ICSID, PCA, SIAC, LCIA, DIAC, HKIAC, ICC, UNCITRAL, ECT and ad hoc arbitration frameworks, and across different jurisdictions such as England and Wales, United States, The Hague, Singapore, Hong Kong, and Luxembourg. These matters have involved a broad range of sectors including oil and gas, energy, telecommunications, mining, commodities, banking and finance, manufacture and licensing, private equity, distribution, logistics, cryptocurrency, technology, infrastructure, and engineering.

In domestic proceedings, Kevin is equally comfortable appearing as
