Overview

Philip is recognised as a leading barrister in international commercial dispute resolution. He appears regularly in the English courts and in international arbitrations in England and overseas.

Philip has a strong practice in complex, high-value commercial disputes across a range of business sectors. His work has been particularly focused in recent years on civil fraud disputes, often requiring urgent injunction applications, energy disputes and disputes relating to the enforcement of foreign arbitration awards. Philip's practice frequently involves state parties or state-owned entities, in both commercial and investment treaty disputes.

Philip is regularly instructed as an expert in foreign proceedings, particularly on issues of English arbitration law.

He accepts appointments as an arbitrator, with experience as an ICC and as an SCC arbitrator. He has also been admitted to the Bar of the East Caribbean Supreme Court, British Virgin Islands and to the Bars of The Cayman Islands and St Kitts and Nevis (on an ad hoc basis).

Example cases

- Federal Republic of Nigeria v Process and Industrial Developments Ltd [2020] EWHC 2379 (Comm): high-profile dispute in respect of a US$10 billion arbitral award made in 2017 and earlier awards. Philip represents Nigeria in its action to set aside the awards and to resist enforcement on the basis that the awards and the arbitral process were tainted by a massive fraud. In September 2020 Sir Ross Cranston granted an unprecedented extension of the 28 day period under s.70(3) Arbitration Act 1996 and relief from sanctions, on the basis of a finding of a strong prima facie case of fraud permitting Nigeria to proceed to a trial of its fraud challenge. He also held obiter that the ruling in Takhar v Gracefield Developments [2019] UKSC 13 applies to arbitration.
- Carpatsky Petroleum Co v PJSC Ukrnafta [2020] EWHC 769 (Comm), [2018] EWHC 2516 (Comm): action to enforce Stockholm arbitration award in England for US$148 million. Preliminary issue of whether a fraud case could be pleaded to resist enforcement, applying the Westacre. Substantive issues included as to law applicable to arbitration agreement and issue estoppel in proceedings to enforce arbitral awards as a result of positions taken in earlier supervisory jurisdiction challenge proceedings and other enforcement proceedings.
- Diag Human SE v Czech Republic PCA Case 2018-20 – ongoing: US$2.4 billion investment treaty claim against Czech Republic arising out of difficulties in enforcing a 2008 Czech commercial arbitration award, including in England [2014] EWHC 1639 (Comm), Austria and the Netherlands (in contrast to successful enforcement in Luxembourg and Belgium). Long-running dispute relating to wrongdoing by the Czech Health Minister in the early 1990s and involving allegations that the Czech State interfered with and corrupted the arbitral review process.
- UNCITRAL Rules arbitration (2020) against West African state-owned entity concerning investment in electricity industry.
- PL Holdings v Poland (Commercial Court) – ongoing: acting on behalf of PL Holdings in its action to enforce in England a Stockholm arbitration award for PLN 653 million (relating to the Benelux-Poland BIT) against Poland, being resisted by Poland in reliance on Slovak Republic v Achmea BV (ECJ case 284/16). Issue as to impact of Brexit on English court application of Achmea.
- John Paylor and others v Junie Conrad Omari Bowers and others [2018] EWHC 826 (Ch): acted for insolvency practitioners in fraud action against bankrupts/directors of insolvent companies tracing proceeds of fraud held in complex offshore structures. Freezing injunctions and search orders. Issue concerning conduct of search order and if, and how, documents held by supervising solicitor should be produced to claimants.
- ICC arbitration Zurich (2017-2018): US$138 million dispute arising out of barter arrangements between foreign investor and Venezuelan state-owned mining company. Issues as to jurisdiction, fraud and corruption, application of mandatory laws, ability of state to rely on its own national law to negate arbitration agreement. Related LMAA arbitrations in London and arbitrations in New York.
- Qingdao Huiquan Shipping Co v Shanghai Dong He Xin Industry Group Co Ltd [2018] EWHC 3009 (Comm): anti-suit injunction to restrain foreign proceedings, obtained despite foreign considerable elapse of time.
- Grove Park Properties Ltd v Royal Bank of Scotland plc [2018] EWHC 3618 (Comm) and [2018] EWHC 3521 (Comm) – ongoing: claim concerning alleged fraud and forgery in respect of financing transaction documents, including swap agreement under ISDA Master Agreement.
- Galas v McAleer [2018] EWHC 2366 (QB): letter of request from Californian court, issues as to whether request satisfied test for specificity and test for relevance on examination.
- CMOC v Persons Unknown (Commercial Court): freezing injunctions against persons unknown in relation to email hacking fraud and illegal transfer of funds from London branch of Chinese bank.
- IPM Energy Trading Ltd v Carillion Energy Services Ltd (Commercial Court) [2017] EWHC 1399 (Comm): dispute concerning the implementation of the UK government CESP scheme imposing carbon offset obligations on power generators.

- ICC arbitration London (2017) and Commercial Court s 68 challenge (2018, private): dispute arising out of joint venture between Russian property developer and wholly-owned subsidiary of Russian state-owned bank concerning development projects in Moscow.

Banking and finance

Philip has a busy banking and finance practice, covering a wide range of disputes, including mis-selling claims, disputes under the ISDA Master Agreement, fraud on loans, sovereign bond disputes, trade finance matters and disputes arising out of banks investing as joint venture partners.

- Grove Park Properties Ltd v Royal Bank of Scotland plc [2018] EWHC 3618 (Comm) and [2018] EWHC 3521 (Comm) – ongoing: claim concerning alleged fraud and forgery in respect of financing transaction documents, including swap agreement under ISDA Master Agreement.
- LCIA Arbitration (ongoing) – dispute concerning restructuring of loan arrangements between Russian lender and Dutch holding company borrower and its subsidiary Indonesian telecommunications business, in particular as to whether restructuring triggered the pledge obligations of the directors standing behind the borrower.
- M-JWK v Polish Real Estate Investment (Commercial Court, 2016) – claim by Polish commercial property group subsidiary against Cypriot parent in relation to payments of debts to Raiffeisen Bank under convertible bonds. The group’s assets were held in a closed-end investment fund managed by a fund manager regulated under by the Polish Financial Supervision Authority (the equivalent of the UK FCA). Issues as to: fraud and bad faith relevant to the founding of English court’s jurisdiction; compliance by the fund manager with its obligations under Polish law; whether, under Polish law, a third party payer of a debt to a bank is entitled to be subrogated to the bank’s rights as lender; validity of board resolutions under Cypriot law.
- LCIA Arbitration (2016) – claim by Russian shareholder in Moscow property joint venture with state-owned bank. Issues concerning improper related party transactions, diversion of bank investment funds, corruption and the jurisdiction of tribunal to consider certain fraud allegations.
- ICC Arbitration (2015) – complex multi-jurisdiction dispute involving English entity financing sale and purchase transactions between Chilean commodities traders and Chinese buyers, with disputes in ICC, HKIAC and Beijing Arbitration Commission. Issues include as to jurisdiction of English court in support of London arbitration to freeze proceeds of deceit in Singapore.
- Diag Human SE v Czech Republic (Commercial Court, 2013-14) [2014] EWHC 1639 (Comm) and [2013] EWHC 3190 (Comm) – Arbitration award enforcement action in English Commercial Court against sovereign state, including by way of third party debt order over sovereign bond payments through banks in London and Luxembourg. Enforcement action reported at [2014] EWHC 1639 (Comm). Additional question of whether security for costs is available to an award debtor in an enforcement action reported at [2013] EWHC 3190 (Comm).
- A v B and ors (Commercial Court, 2011) [2011] EWHC 2905 (Comm) unreported – Application for freezing injunction against London bank over sovereign bond payments by state for payment of bondholder coupons. Issues as to court jurisdiction to grant freezing injunction against third party under Chabra jurisdiction where possible sovereign immunity of primary respondent, as to nature of bond payments and whether constituted flawed assets and as to impact of freezing orders of this nature on sovereign debt market.

Civil fraud

Philip is recommended as a leading junior for fraud and is described as “Creative and thorough – an ideal junior for fraud cases” (The Legal 500 2016).

Recent years have seen Philip involved in a number of complex and very high-value fraud disputes both in court and in arbitration. His fraud cases generally concern cross-border commercial relationships and have particularly focused on work out of the CIS and Africa, especially in energy and natural resources and banking and finance matters and often involving states of state-owned entities. He has extensive experience of working with high net worth individuals and is alert to client sensitivities about litigation and arbitration. He is also familiar with the common features of fraud disputes arising in the CIS and in Africa, including political involvement and difficulties in securing witnesses. Recent work has included acting for a former chairman of a Ukraine bank in a claim brought by the bank, a claim against a Russian energy company relating to a sale and purchase contract with an offshore subsidiary and a dispute in respect of the forced sale by the SFO of a property owned by the convicted fraudster “Lord” Edward Davenport.

- Federal Republic of Nigeria v Process and Industrial Developments Ltd [2020] EWHC 2379 (Comm): high-profile dispute in respect of a US$10 billion arbitral award made in 2017 and earlier awards. - CMOC v Persons Unknown (2018 Commercial Court): freezing injunctions against persons unknown in relation to email hacking fraud and illegal transfer of funds from London branch of Chinese bank.
- ICC Arbitration (2018) – dispute involving allegations of fraud and corruption in commercial transactions involving state-owned entity. Issues include identification of the applicable law under which allegations to be determined and consequent impact on validity of underlying contract and arbitration agreement, duty of tribunal to investigate fraud of its own motion and relevance of Interpol Red Notice in fraud allegations.
- Sovarex v Markov (Commercial Court, 2016) – claim for deceit in relation to creditworthiness of commodities buyer and associated interim freezing relief against buyer and its controlling shareholder. Issue as to jurisdiction of court to grant relief over non-party to arbitration following the clarification of the jurisdiction by Males J in Cruz City.
- M-JWK v Polish Real Estate Investment (Commercial Court, 2016) – claim by Polish commercial property group subsidiary against Cypriot parent in relation to payments of debts to Raiffeisen Bank under convertible bonds. Issues of fraud and bad faith relevant to the founding of English court's jurisdiction.
- LCIA Arbitration (2016) – claim by Russian shareholder in Moscow property joint venture with state-owned bank. Issues concerning improper related party transactions, corruption and the jurisdiction of tribunal to consider certain fraud allegations.
- ICC Arbitration (2015) – complex multi-jurisdiction dispute involving English entity financing sale and purchase transactions between Chilean commodities traders and Chinese buyers, with disputes in ICC, HKIAC and Beijing Arbitration Commission. Issues include as to jurisdiction of English court in support of London arbitration to freeze proceeds of deceit in Singapore.
- LCIA Arbitration (2013) – US$2 billion dispute concerning the Russian and Ukrainian mining and metals industry involving questions of fraud, reflective loss and entitlement to injunctive relief (led by Joe Smouha QC).
- ICC Arbitration (2013) – dispute arising out of fraudulent management of Caribbean investment trust (Bahamian law) in Italy and Switzerland.

Commercial disputes

Philip is recommended as a leading junior for Commercial Dispute Resolution in Chambers & Partners and in Legal 500. He is described as “A superstar junior who is responsive, commercial and bright” (Chambers & Partners UK Bar 2016) and as “An excellent junior, who is sound tactically and gets to the heart of the case quickly” (Legal 500 2016) and as “Intellectually great and commercially sound” (The Legal 500 Asia-Pacific, Commercial, 2017).

Philip's commercial work covers a wide range of disputes in the energy, mining, banking and finance, telecoms, pharmaceuticals and trade and shipping industries. He also has experience in art disputes. His cases tend to be high-value and to have a multi-jurisdictional aspect.

He has a particular depth of experience in applications at an early stage in commercial proceedings (both in litigation and arbitration). His advice focuses on the commercial needs of the client and, where possible and appropriate, sets out options for clients to attain commercial objectives faster and more cost-effectively than simply progressing to a full trial. His applications work includes: urgent freezing injunctions and disclosure orders, both ex parte and on notice, anti-suit injunctions, passport delivery-up orders, jurisdiction challenges and summary judgment applications.

In addition, Philip has expertise in enforcement work in the English courts (including against sovereign states), both in respect of judgments and in respect of arbitral awards – English and foreign. This work includes applying for post-judgment/post-award freezing injunctions and for the appointment of receivers by way of equitable execution.

International arbitration

Philip is recommended as a leading junior in international arbitration (Chambers & Partners 2016, Chambers & Partners Global 2017, and Legal 500 and Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2016) and is described as “very hard-working; he rolls up his sleeves, gets on with things and does a very good job” (Chambers & Partners 2016), “Extremely user-friendly...and knows arbitration inside out” (Chambers & Partners Global 2017) and “Intellectually great and commercially sound” (Legal 500 Asia-Pacific 2016).

Philip’s arbitration work includes both ad hoc and institutional arbitrations, including LCIA, ICC, HKIAC, SIAC, SCC and LMAA.

His arbitration work has been particularly focused on high value emerging markets disputes. He has developed a particular expertise in applications in support of arbitration, in support of the commercial needs of the client, seeking to attain commercial objectives faster and more cost-effectively than simply progressing to a full trial. Applications in support of arbitration include those for urgent freezing injunctions and disclosure orders, both ex parte and on notice, anti-suit injunctions, passport delivery-up orders, jurisdiction challenges and summary judgment applications.

Philip has considerable expertise in arbitration hearings, covering both applications and final hearings. In addition, Philip has expertise in the enforcement of arbitral awards, including against sovereign states. This includes applying for post-award freezing injunctions and for the appointment of receivers by way of equitable execution.

Philip also accepts appointments as and has experience as an arbitrator, including as an ICC arbitrator.
